INTRODUCTION

In accordance with the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) Section 5.42, a local government may delegate to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties under the Act.

PURPOSE

The purpose of delegations is to assist with improving the time taken to make decisions within the constraints allowed by the relevant legislation.

The Delegation Register contains a record of all Delegations of Authority made to the CEO pursuant to section 5.42 of the Act.

Where listed, some of these functions are hereby delegated by the CEO to Bunbury Harvey Regional Council (BHRC) employees pursuant to Section 5.44 of the ACT.

SCOPE

Each instrument of delegation describes the function being delegated and the relevant statutory reference which is the source of power for the exercise of the function.

All delegations made by the Council must be by absolute majority decision.

Limits on delegation to the CEO:

- Any power or duty that requires a decision of an absolute majority decision or 75% majority if local government
- Accepting a tender which exceeds an amount determined by the local government
- Appointing an auditor
- Acquiring or disposing of any property valued at an amount determined by the local government
- Any of the local government's powers under Section 5.98, 5.98A, 5.99 or 5.99A of the Local Government Act 1995
- Borrowing money on behalf of the local government
- Hearing, determining an objection of a kind referred to in Section 9.5
- The power under Section 9.49A (4) to authorise a person to sign documents on behalf of the local government
- Any power or duty that requires the approval of the Minister or Governor

The CEO may delegate any of his powers to another employee with or without further conditions in accordance with the Act, subject to any conditions imposed by the local government on its delegation to the CEO. All delegations must be in writing.

Subsection 5.44 (3) (b) of the Act does not limit the CEO’s power to impose conditions or further conditions on a delegation under this section.

A register of delegations relevant to the CEO and other employees is to be kept and reviewed at least once every financial year.

If a person is exercising a power or duty that they have been delegated, the ACT requires them to keep necessary records to the exercise of power or discharge of the duty. The written record is to contain:

- How the person exercised the power or discharged the duty
- When the person exercised the power or discharged the duty
- The persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

Definitions:

Delegation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Conferral of the ability to exercise a power or duty to a person or body from a person or body that is vested with the responsibility to exercise that power or duty• The act of empowering to act for another• To commit powers or duties to others
Authorisation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The designation of an officer or a body as a person or body that is capable of exercising a statutory power or duty• The act of giving someone official permission to do something

Background to delegations and authorisations

Delegation and authorisations are the means by which decision making bodies can access the power to undertake certain statutory functions.

Delegation does not imply a parting with powers by the person who grants the delegation, but points rather to a conferring of an authority to do things which otherwise the person would have to do himself.

When a person or body exercises delegated authority they do so ‘on behalf’ of the delegate and in doing so the person or body exercising delegated authority forms the relevant state of mind to make the decision ‘on behalf’ of the delegator. An authorised person or body exercises the statutory function in their own right.

Standard Conditions of Delegation

All delegations are subject to the following Standard Conditions:

- In exercising delegation any and all Officers to whom authority has been delegated shall comply with any and all laws and regulations in force in Western Australia and the requirements of any and all local laws and policies of the Bunbury Harvey Regional Council.

- In exercising delegations any and all Officers to whom authority has been delegated shall exercise the delegation in accordance with any budget authority where applicable.
- Delegated authority cannot be exercised where a financial interest or interest affecting impartiality is evident.
- It is a statutory requirement to maintain a record of each decision made under delegated authority. Documents relating to delegated authority decisions shall as a minimum, record:
 - Date the decision was exercised
 - Name of the officer/committee exercising the decision
 - Description of how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty, including where appropriate, any directions to staff to carry out work associated with the decision unless those directions are included in Policies, Corporate Guidelines of the Delegation Register.
- Where ever possible the requirements of the above shall be incorporated into administrative documents and maintained according to the Records Management Plan.
